AMEND Senate Bill No. 1271

House Bill No. 360*

by deleting the following amendatory language in subdivision (f)(1)(A)(i) in Section 1 in its entirety:

Except as provided in subdivision (f)(2), if a person's motor vehicle operator's license has been revoked pursuant to subsection (d), the person may apply to the trial or juvenile court judge for a restricted driver license.

And by substituting instead the following language:

Except as provided in subdivision (f)(2), if the motor vehicle operator's license of a person, age eighteen (18) or over but under age twenty-one (21), has been revoked pursuant to subsection (d), the person may apply to the trial or juvenile court judge for a restricted driver license.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the following language in subdivision (f)(2)(A) in Section 1 in its entirety:

A Tennessee resident, whose operator's license has been suspended because of a conviction or finding of delinquency in another jurisdiction for underage driving while impaired, may apply for a restricted license to a judge of any court of the county of the person's residence having jurisdiction to try the criminal or delinquency charges for underage driving while impaired.

And by substituting instead the following language:

A Tennessee resident, age eighteen (18) or over but under age twenty-one (21), whose operator's license has been suspended because of a conviction in another jurisdiction for underage driving while impaired, may apply for a restricted license to a judge of any court of the county of the person's residence having jurisdiction to try the criminal or delinquency charges for underage driving while impaired.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the following amendatory language in subdivision (f)(3) in Section 1 in its entirety:

(3) The order granting the issuance of a restricted license shall state with all practicable specificity the necessary time and places of permissible operation of a motor vehicle and shall be made a part of the order or judgment of the court. The order may be presented within ten (10) days after the date of conviction to the department, accompanied by a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00). If the person has first successfully completed a driver's license examination, the department shall forthwith issue a restricted license embodying the limitations imposed upon the person so convicted.

AND BY SUBSTITUTING instead the following language:

(3) The order granting the issuance of a restricted license to a person age eighteen (18) or more but less than twenty-one (21) shall state with all practicable specificity the necessary time and places of permissible operation of a motor vehicle and shall be made a part of the order or judgment of the court. The order may be presented within ten (10) days after the date of conviction or finding of delinquency to the department, accompanied by a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00). If such person has first successfully completed a driver's license examination, the department shall forthwith issue a restricted license embodying the limitations imposed upon the person so convicted.
